YOUR SPECIAL DAY

planning your wedding?

If you're reading this, you're likely planning your wedding and looking for a wedding photographer.

But is the thought of posing in front of the camera all day making you feel, well, urgh?

You like those natural shots, the ones you didn't realise were being captured, am I right?

You know the ones... The ones that tell stories!

Because you just want to have the best day ever, knowing the important moments are covered while you focus on having a good time.

I want that for you too.

YOUR EXPERIENCE

your wedding photography

You want awesome photos of your wedding that show the emotion-filled journey of your day, without the stress!

I'm with you! If a camera points my way, I clam up and go all Chandler from Friends. Eek! But, weddings are about so much more than the pressure of photos!

They're about happy tears flowing when you walk down the aisle, seeing your partner for the first time.

The speeches that make you laugh so hard you spit your drink out, and have you in tears moments later.

That drunken aunt that takes to the dance floor and flirts with the DJ!

My photos are natural, relaxed and designed to put you at ease.

For most of your day, I'll be a fly on the wall, capturing every important moment, while you focus on enjoying it!

For the bits where you do know I'm there, you'll feel perfectly at ease as if with an old friend.

Lovely words from my beautiful couples.

RICHARD & RICARDO

“Easily the best decision we made choosing Lindsey as our wedding photographer.”

YOUR PHOTOGRAPHER

Hi. I'm Lindsey!

Hi! I'm Lindsey. I'm all about real, honest connections.

My superpower is putting you at ease, helping you relax and encouraging you to be you!

'Cause this is where the best photos come from.

I live for my Spanish rescue dog, Risco. We enjoy a simple life of countryside dog walks that're followed by curling up on the giant dog bed, errr I mean sofa.

I'm a self confessed serial Netflix binger, tea drinker (sorry I HATE coffee!), rock music-loving, bookworm and wedding photographer!

A few things you might not know about me...

- I was voted bookworm in my school yearbook (and I'm still a proud bookworm to this day! Seriously I can't go anywhere without a book!)
- I LOVE a body combat class. Something about punching and kicking your way to fitness makes me feel amazing!
- I once booked a cruise holiday despite the fact that I'm terrified of boats and can't swim. (Had an absolute blast though - Highly recommend!)
- You know I'm dog obsessed right? What!? I didn't mention it? No way!

BEN & GEORGINA

"100 million % would recommend,
she is fantastic"

DAN & KATIE

“We felt perfectly relaxed around you, we didn’t stop laughing all day.

In the nicest way possible, we didn’t notice you were there most of the time.”

WEDDING ALBUMS

When memories become your legacy.

Most go for albums 'cause I make them super affordable, because they're awesome and I really want you to have one! So many couples I know said they'd do it later, just haven't gotten round to it. This way you're safe knowing you're sorted from the get go!

And instead of thinking "We must get our wedding album sorted!", when you start approaching your first anniversary you can instead take out your album and remember the awesome day when you got married.
